a. Our latest photography has turned up two more SA-2 surface-to-air missile sites, both in Oriente province. One of these, near the town of Cabanas, is the first site within SA-2 range of the air approaches to Guantanamo.

b. The photography also shows that one of the previously confirmed sites has now been abandoned, making the present total twenty-one.

c. Seven of the twelve sites observed on this occasion now have missiles on launcher; some of these are probably operational.

3. Saudi Arabia -
Yemen

a. King Saud has named Crown Prince Faysal prime minister and given him authority to form his own cabinet--which amounts to forced abdication.

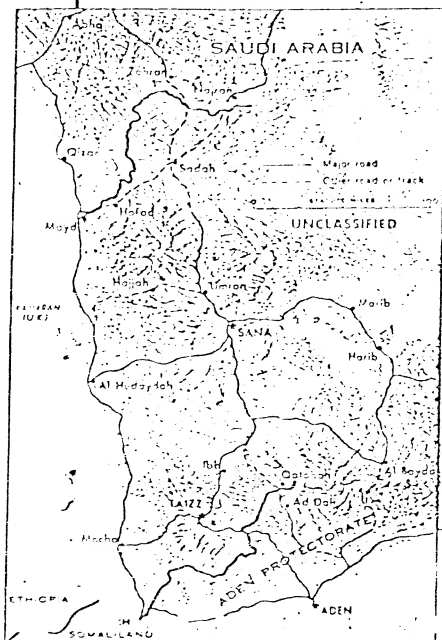

b. Jordan's King Husayn has been putting pressure on Saud to intervene in force in Yemen before it is too late, and Saud earlier this week ordered reinforcements dispatched to augment the two Saudi brigades now in the border area.

c. The new regime may now reverse this, however, for the same reason that Saud was persuaded to step aside, i.e., to avert a revolt against the Saudi monarchy which could all too easily be ignited by an adventure into Yemen.

d. Yemeni republican forces claim to have inflicted heavy casualties yesterday on Saudi forces which had infiltrated into a tribal stronghold in northeast Yemen. There may be something to the claim, [

Key cities like Cairo, Amman, Baghdad, Kuwait City, and Tehran are marked. A 'NEUTRAL ZONE' is indicated between Iraq and Kuwait. The map is labeled with 'U.A.R. (EGYPT)' and 'SAUDI'.

4. Congo

a. Adoula's government is boiling up around him, and may compel him to disavow the accords reached so far.

b. The cabinet is in virtual revolt over what it considers unwarranted liberties taken by UN officials in promoting these deals, some of which Adoula is saying privately he never saw or approved.

c. The more rabid members are demanding that Adoula issue a statement repudiating the agreements and invite the UN to leave.

d. The government radio is already deprecating as sheer propaganda Tshombe's actions under his commitment to McGhee. It is also saying the cease-fire accord is not binding on the Congo Army, which it says responds only to orders from the central government.

b. We think Khrushchev intends the session to focus on domestic affairs, presumably including the "major reorganization" which lower-level party officials have been talking about recently.

c. We still can only speculate about what this impending reorganization might entail. The only new approach to current problems being floated publicly is the radical Libermann proposal (described in last Sunday's Times) for putting industrial enterprises on a profit rather than plan fulfillment basis.

d. This proposal by a respected Soviet economist and administrator is being tested at a number of enterprises, but we doubt that it could be widely applied very soon.

6. Laos

a. Souvanna plans next week to balance off his trip to Bangkok with one to Hanoi where, he says, he will pursue the matter of troop withdrawals. He intends to go on to Peiping if he can get no satisfaction in Hanoi.

b. The matter of German recognition seems well on its way to solution with Bonn ready to recall its ambassador and instead establish a commercial mission. Souvanna has promised in this case not to accord diplomatic recognition to the East Germans who will also be limited to a commercial delegation.

c. Souvanna's relations with the Pathet Lao continue to worsen.

US INTELLIGENCE BOARD WATCH COMMITTEE REPORT--16 October

1. On the basis of findings by its Watch Committee, the US Intelligence Board again concluded that no Sino-Soviet Bloc country intends to initiate direct military action in the immediate future.
2. On Laos, the Committee noted no evidence that any more North Vietnamese troops have left Laos. It also noted serious friction within the coalition government, but saw no clear sign of early collapse of the government or of renewed hostilities.
3. The Committee also pointed to the likelihood of further serious clashes along the Sino-Indian border.
